CHURCH AND SCHOOL

Mission Festival

October 4, 2026

WELS

Christ's Love, Our Calling.

Welcome to St. Matthew's!

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship today! It is our prayer that God would fill you with His grace and peace as we worship our Lord and Savior Jesus. If you have questions about St. Matthew's or would like to speak to one of the pastors, please feel free to reach out to us using the contact information on the back cover.

Mission Festival Sunday

Dedicating a Weekend to a Mission Festival has been a long-standing and well-loved practice in the Lutheran Church, for it gives us the direct opportunity to hear anew the Great Commission our Lord has given to His Church! In ways, we are recipients of the blessings from Mission Festivals held generations before us. Believers heard the Great Commission and worked together to send thousands of Lutheran pastors and teachers from Germany to America in the 1800's. Now it's our turn!

Our leaders have now set aside the First Sunday in October as Mission Festival Sunday – to keep the Great Commission in our sights. The focus will shift each year as we rotate between World Missions, Home Mission, and Ministerial Education. This year we are focusing our attention on Home Missions.

To lead us in that, we welcome Pastor Paul Schupmann who serves on our Western Wisconsin District Mission Board. Join us between services on Sunday to learn more about the work we are doing together to share the Gospel! In 2023, WELS adopted the goal of "100 Missions in 10 Years." Come and see how the Lord continues to open doors!

Hymn 745 Hark, the Voice of Jesus Crying

We worship in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.
How can they believe if they have not heard?

How can they hear without someone preaching?
And how can anyone preach unless they are sent?

Faith comes from hearing the message,
And the message is heard through the word of Christ.

Confession

God places people in our lives to love, to serve, and to hear the good news of Jesus. Yet too often we see interruptions instead of opportunities, strangers instead of souls, and reasons to remain silent instead of reasons to speak.
Lord, forgive us. We have failed to love you and the people you place before us. Forgive our fear, our silence, and all our sins. Have mercy on us for Jesus' sake.

Absolution

Hear the good news you have been given to share: Jesus Christ lived for you. Jesus died for you. Jesus rose for you! Because of him, your guilt is gone and your sins are forgiven. As a called servant of Christ and by his authority, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

You have heard the good news. You are forgiven. Now go with that good news.
How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!

The Word

Prayer of the Day

Lord Jesus, you have brought us the good news of salvation and called us to share it with others. Open our eyes to the people you place in our lives, give us courage to speak, and use your Word to bring many to know you as their Savior; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

Children's Message

First Reading — Jonah 3:1-10

God has a city full of people who need his Word.

[1]Then the word of the LORD came to Jonah a second time: [2]"Go to the great city of Nineveh and proclaim to it the message I give you."

[3]Jonah obeyed the word of the LORD and went to Nineveh. Now Nineveh was a very large city; it took three days to go through it. [4]Jonah began by going a day's journey into the city, proclaiming, "Forty more days and Nineveh will be overthrown." [5]The Ninevites believed God. A fast was proclaimed, and all of them, from the greatest to the least, put on sackcloth.

[6]When Jonah's warning reached the king of Nineveh, he rose from his throne, took off his royal robes, covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the dust. [7]This is the proclamation he issued in Nineveh:

"By the decree of the king and his nobles:

Do not let people or animals, herds or flocks, taste anything; do not let them eat or drink. [8]But let people and animals be covered with sackcloth. Let everyone call urgently on God. Let them give up their evil ways and their violence. [9]Who knows? God may yet relent and with compassion turn from his fierce anger so that we will not perish."

[10]When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he relented and did not bring on them the destruction he had threatened.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Anthem — Work While it is Day

Sat. – Duet; Sun. – 5K-8 grades

Second Reading (Sermon Text) — Acts 8:26-40

God has one person who needs Jesus.

[26]Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Go south to the road—the desert road—that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." [27]So he started out, and on his way he met an Ethiopian eunuch, an important official in charge of all the treasury of the Kandake (which means "queen of the Ethiopians"). This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship, [28]and on his way home was sitting in his chariot reading the Book of Isaiah the prophet.
[29]The Spirit told Philip, "Go to that chariot and stay near it."

[30]Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. "Do you understand what you are reading?" Philip asked.

[31]"How can I," he said, "unless someone explains it to me?" So he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

[32]This is the passage of Scripture the eunuch was reading:

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter,
and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
[33]In his humiliation he was deprived of justice.
Who can speak of his descendants?
For his life was taken from the earth."

[34]The eunuch asked Philip, "Tell me, please, who is the prophet talking about, himself or someone else?" [35]Then Philip began with that very passage of Scripture and told him the good news about Jesus.

[36]As they traveled along the road, they came to some water and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water. What can stand in the way of my being baptized?" [38]And he gave orders to stop the chariot. Then both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water and Philip baptized him. [39]When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord suddenly took Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him again, but went on his way rejoicing. [40]Philip, however, appeared at Azotus and traveled about, preaching the gospel in all the towns until he reached Caesarea.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Hymn 904:1,3,4 — O Christ, Our True and Only Light

Gospel — Luke 24:44-49

God has a world full of people who need forgiveness.

44He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms."
45Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. 46He told them,
"This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, 47and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. 48You are witnesses of these things. 49I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to you, O Christ!

Hymn 908:1,2 — Go Forth and Preach the Gospel

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Hymn of the Day 901 — O Christians, Haste

Sermon — Tell Me, Please

Prayer of the Church

Gracious God, you have brought the good news of Jesus to us and now send us to share that good news with others.
Lord, open our eyes to the people you place before us.

Bless WELS Home Missions as they plant churches and proclaim Christ in new communities. Give missionaries, pastors, and members courage and joy in their work.
Lord, send your Spirit and bless the preaching of your Word.

Bless WELS World Missions and all who carry the gospel across cultures and nations. Open doors for your Word and bring many to know Jesus as their Savior.
Lord, send your Spirit and gather people from every nation into your kingdom.

Lord of the harvest, raise up more pastors, teachers, and called workers for your Church. Fill the classrooms of Martin Luther College and Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary with faithful servants eager to proclaim your Word. Through them, raise up the next generation to know Christ and make him known.
Lord, send workers into your harvest.

Bless the pastors and members of our congregation. Give us eyes to see the souls around us and courage to speak when you give us opportunities.
Lord, make us faithful in sharing the good news of Jesus.

Send your Holy Spirit to work through your Word. Give us the resolve to remain faithful to your truth, trusting that you alone create and strengthen faith.
Lord, your Word will not return to you empty.

We bring before you those among us who are hurting, grieving, sick, lonely, or in need. Give them your strength and surround them with your people and your promises.
Lord, hear our prayer and keep us in your care.

Lord Jesus, you have someone for us to meet. When you place them before us, give us love to see them, courage to speak, and the good news of Jesus to share.
Send us, Lord, and make us faithful. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Blessing

Jesus said, "Go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

Go, then, with His blessing:
The LORD bless you and keep you.
The LORD make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The LORD look on you with favor and give you peace.
We go in the name of the Lord. Amen!

Closing Hymn 900 Lift High the Cross

In Our Prayers: May our gracious Lord comfort the family of Carol Koblitz who was called home to heaven on Sept. 28. Her funeral is Monday, Oct. 5 at 10:30 am with visitation beginning at 9:30. May our gracious Lord also comfort the family of Rick, Weide, Marlene Redfield's brother. The Lord called Rick home to heaven on Oct. 1.

Bible Study Opportunities

Sunday Adult Bible Study at 9:15am
Join us as we look at God's Faithfulness. A promise is only as good as the person making it and the ability to keep it. Eternity depends on God's promises made to us in his Word and his faithfulness in keeping those promises. We are lost for eternity without them. We'll examine God's promises in Scripture and his faithfulness to them both in the lives of those in the Bible and our lives.

Men's Bible Breakfast – 2nd Saturdays of the Month
Calling all men to come for a great breakfast and a study of God's Word. Breakfast starts at 7:30am on the second Saturday of each month. Pastor Bigelow is leading the topic, "Connecting Sinai to Calvary."

Women in the Word – Thursdays at 8:30am
Join us in the Gathering Space for a new study "Equipped: The Armor of God for Everyday Struggles." The devil works every day to turn us away from our faith. Sometimes it's not in grand, blatant temptations, but in small ones we encounter every day. The devil works through exhaustion, temptation, worry, frustration, and many other ways that are all daily occurrences. God gives us the strength and equips us to stand against the devil's schemes. Discover how God equips us for the battle.

Sunday School and Teen Study at 9:15am
Sunday School is once again studying various Bible stories, using the Christ Light curriculum. Parents, please drop off your children in the sanctuary at 9:15am. You can pick up your children in their respective classrooms. Teen Study is for 7th-12th grade students. Teens are studying why we do the things we do in Lutheran worship. Teen Study meets in the Teen Room in the Youth Ministry hallway.

Start 100 new home mission churches in 10 years. That's 10 missions each year, 10 new dots on the map throughout North America. During the same time, we want to support 75 enhancement grants to help existing congregations reach more souls, often in other cultures. It's an aggressive plan. To some, it might seem unachievable. Can our synod do this? Do we have the manpower, money, and ministry resources?

We trust that God will bless our efforts. This initiative isn't as much about planting more churches but about sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ. It's about aggressively reaching lost souls. It's about Christ's mission to his church. You know that mission: "Go and make disciples of all nations." But consider the words that Jesus spoke right before that: "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me." Look at the one who commissioned us. He is the one who said to the wind and waves, "Quiet, be still," and to the paralyzed man, "Get up, take up your mat and walk," and to Lazarus, "Come out." He is the one who died, rose from the dead, and descended into hell proving and proclaiming his victory. Death was put to death. The devil defeated. The powers of sin destroyed.

This is the Jesus who has commissioned us. This is the Jesus who rules over his church on earth. This is the Jesus who has equipped us! This initiative is about aggressively and confidently doing the work that he has called all of us to do.
There are still many out there waiting to be found and reached. They just don't know it yet. So let's support this. Let's do our part to get after it, trusting that God is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine.
