

St. Matthew's

CHURCH AND SCHOOL

Third Sunday after Epiphany

January 25, 2026

WELS

Christ's Love, Our Calling.

Welcome to St. Matthew's!

We are delighted that you have joined us for worship today! It is our prayer that God would fill you with His grace and peace as we worship our Lord and Savior Jesus. If you have questions about St. Matthew's or would like to speak to one of the pastors, please feel free to reach out to us using the contact information on the back cover.

IDENTITY REVEALED

Jesus is the Light

The prophet Isaiah vividly described humanity as "people walking in darkness." Then he foretold that a light would shine on them. Enveloped by sin, suffering, and death, we find our minds and hearts clouded. But Jesus is revealed as the promised light. He shines his light by preaching repentance and the good news of the kingdom. Our Savior is the Light of the world, and we reflect his light onto everyone around us.

This Sunday, we welcome the A Cappella Choir from Lakeside Lutheran High School in Lake Mills, WI. Lakeside was formed in 1955, when it was then called, "Jefferson County Lutheran High School." In 1958 they officially opened their doors as 41 students enrolled; classes were held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Fort Atkinson. In 1961, 33 acres were purchased at their current site in Lake Mills. Throughout the years, the Lord has tremendously blessed this ministry. Currently there are over 550 students. We invite you to join us in the Commons at 9:30 today to learn more as we welcome Mr. Matt Oppermann who serves at the Mission Advancement Director at Lakeside. If you would like to support the choir, there is a door offering box in the Gathering Space on the table as you exit.

The Order of Worship for
Third Sunday after Epiphany
January 25, 2026

Call to Worship Arise, Arise, This Day Rejoice
Awake, My Sole
Lakeside A Cappella

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me,
because my soul has taken refuge in you.

Be exalted above the heavens, O God.
May your glory be over all the earth.

My heart is steadfast, O God, my heart is steadfast.
Awake, my soul! Awake, harp and lyre! I will awaken the dawn.

I will give thanks to you among the peoples, O Lord,
Because your great mercy reaches above the heavens.

Be exalted above the heavens, O God.
May your glory be over all the earth.

CHOIR:
You cast me out into the deep and there your floods surround.
I sank beneath the raging sea as billows crashed around.
I was thrown out from your sight and I was driven away.
I know I will see with my eyes again your holy place.

Our help is in the name of the Lord,
the maker of heaven and earth.

Let us confess our sins to God and ask for his forgiveness.
Almighty God, merciful Father,
I confess to you that I have not loved you with all my heart.
In what I have done and left undone,
I have pursued my ways instead of your ways.
I have not loved others as you command.
For this I deserve your punishment now and forever.
I am sorry for my sins.
I repent of them.
I beg for your mercy.

CHOIR: REFRAIN
I called to God in my distress.
He has heard my voice.
I called to him out of the depths.
He answered my call.

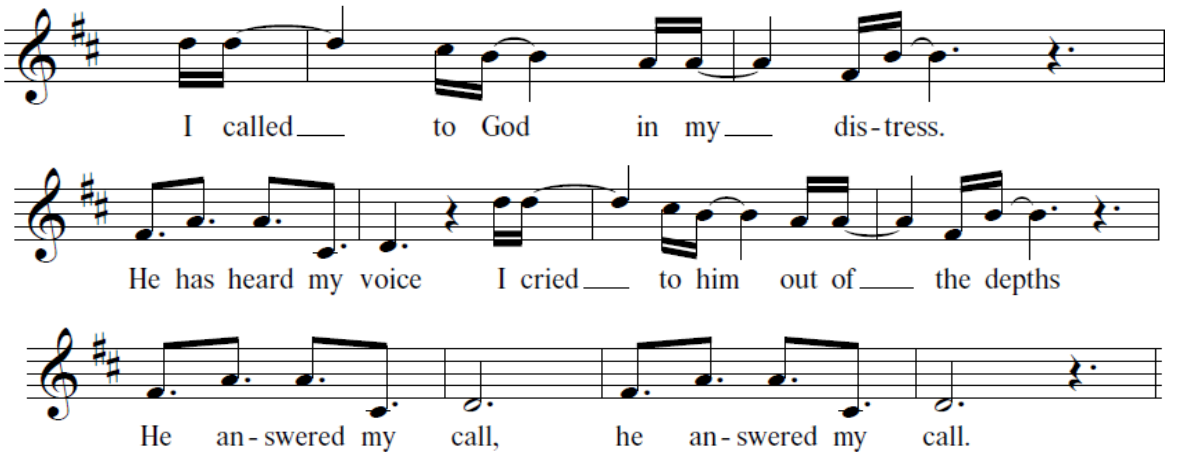

The waters closed in over me, they came to bring me death.
I was covered up by the deep, weeds choked out my breath.
I sank down to the mountain roots, the earth had locked me in.
Just as the grave sealed up its gates, you saved me from the pit.

Forgive us for the sake of Jesus Christ, who suffered and died for us.
Cleanse me from my sins.
Release me from my guilt.
Grant me your Holy Spirit to amend my sinful life.

Jesus says to his people, "If you forgive anyone's sins, their sins are forgiven."
Do you believe this?
Yes, I believe.

In the name and by the command of our Lord Jesus Christ, I forgive you all your sins.
Amen.

CONGREGATION: REFRAIN

CHOIR:
As my life fainted away, I remembered you, my God.
All those who hope in idols vain forsake their hope of love.

CONGREGATION: REFRAIN

CHOIR
With my voice I will give thanks,
A sacrifice to you.
What I have vowed I know will pay.
Salvation comes from you.

Our Lord Jesus Christ has forgiven us, has reconciled us to God, and has promised us the power to forgive and love one another. Relying on his promise, therefore, be reconciled with one another.
Brothers and sisters, may the peace of Christ rule in our hearts, in our words, and in our actions.

First Reading — Jonah 2:10-3:5,10

Then the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited Jonah onto dry land.

Then the word of the Lord came to Jonah a second time: "Get up. Go to Nineveh, the great city, and preach to it the message that I tell you."

So Jonah set out and went to Nineveh just as the word of the Lord had commanded. Now Nineveh was a great city to God. It required a three-day walk. Jonah walked through the city for a day, and he called out, "Forty more days and Nineveh is going to be overthrown!" The men of Nineveh believed God. They proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least.

When God saw their actions, that they had turned from their evil way, God relented from the disaster which he said he would bring on them, and he did not carry it out.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

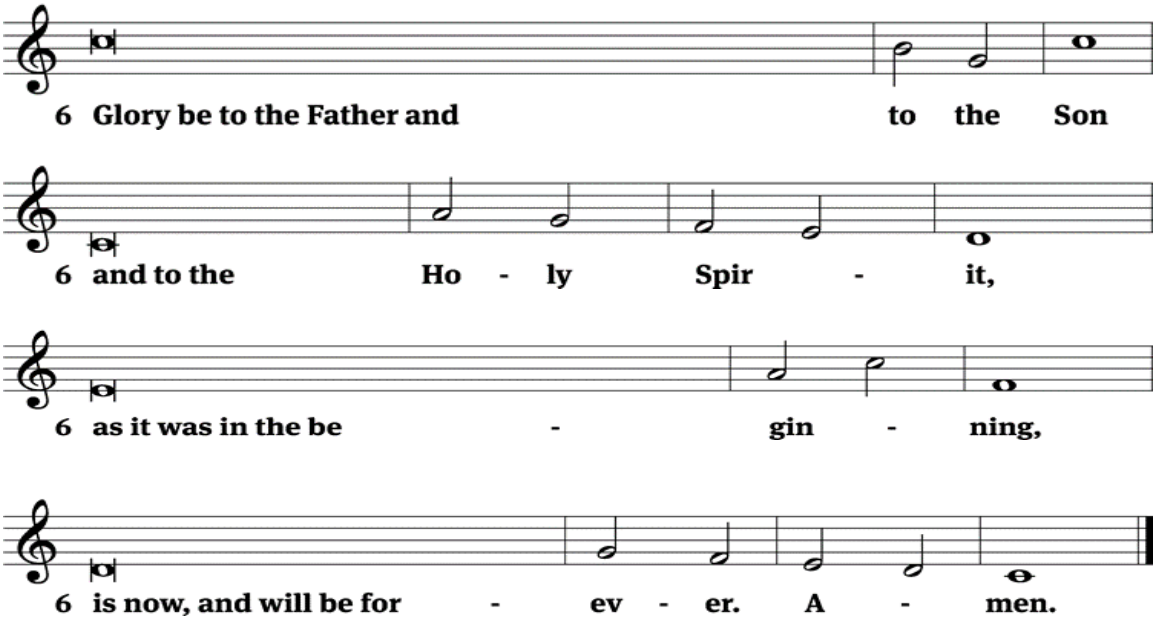

You Have Searched Me, Lord — Lakeside A Cappella

You have searched me, Lord, and you know me;
You perceive me thoughts from afar.
You discern my going out and my lying down;
You are familiar with all my ways.

Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?
If I go up to the heavens, you are there;
If I make my bed in the depths, you are there.

If I rise on the wings of the dawn,
If I settle on the far side of the sea,
Even there your hand will guide me,
Your right hand will hold me fast.

CONGREGATION:

Second Reading — Philippians 3:7-14

But, whatever things were a profit for me, these things I have come to consider a loss because of Christ. But even more than that, I consider everything to be a loss because of what is worth far more: knowing Christ Jesus, my Lord. For his sake, I have lost all things and consider them rubbish, so that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, which comes from the law, but that which comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness that comes from God by faith. I do this so that I may know him and the power of his resurrection and the fellowship of his sufferings, being conformed to his death, in the hope that in some way I may arrive at the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal, but I press on to take hold of that for which Christ Jesus also took hold of me. Brothers, I do not consider myself to have taken hold of it yet, but there is one thing I do: Forgetting the things that are behind and straining toward the things that are ahead, I press on toward the goal, for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Pursue — Lakeside A Cappella

Gospel — Luke 19:1-10

Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. A man named Zacchaeus was there. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus was, but since he was short, he could not see because of the crowd. He ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Jesus, because he was about to pass by that way. When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." He came down quickly and welcomed Jesus joyfully. When the people saw it, they were all grumbling because he went to be a guest of a sinful man.

Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I am going to give half of my possessions to the poor. And if I have cheated anyone out of anything, I will pay back four times as much."

Jesus said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise be to you, O Christ!

Hymn: Chief of Sinners Though I Be

MEN:
Chief of sinners though I be, Jesus shed his blood for me,
Died that I might live on high, lives that I might never die.
As the branch is to the vine, I am his and he is mine.

WOMEN:
Oh, the height of Jesus' love, higher than the heav'ns above,
Deeper than the depths of sea, lasting as eternity,
Love that found me–wondrous thought–found me when I sought him not.

CHOIR:
Only Jesus can impart comfort to a wounded heart,
Peace that flows from sins forgiv'n, joy that lifts the soul to heav'n,
Faith and hope to walk with God in the way that Enoch trod.

ALL

Chief of sinners though I be, Christ is all in all to me;
All my wants to him are known, all my sorrows are his own.
Safe with him in earthly strife, I await the heav'nly life.

Strengthen me, O gracious Lord, by your Spirit and your Word.
When my wayward heart would stray, keep me in the narrow way;
Grace in time of need supply while I live and when I die.

Sermon — A Light has Dawned

Pastor Steven Hillmer

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation, he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate. He suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who in unity with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer of the Church

Heavenly Father, you loved the world and gave your Son to free us from sin and death by his obedient death on the cross.
We confess that without your love we are lost.

Lord of the Church, we thank you for the treasure of the gospel. By your Spirit, keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of our faith.
Strengthen our determination to do what pleases you, no matter what the danger or the cost.

Guard and guide those who carry a cross in the name of Christ and face ridicule and persecution for the sake of the kingdom: missionaries and chaplains, young people who stand up for what is right in the face of pressure to do what is wrong, and all who pay a high price for their faith and values as Christians.
By your Spirit, O Lord, grant them patience and endurance.

Keep in your care those who carry heavy burdens in life: the sick and the chronically ill, the depressed and the lonely, those torn by conflict in personal relationships, and those victimized by war and injustice. [Special Prayers spoken here.] Comfort all who face the terrors of life with a heavy heart.
Grant them peace, O Lord, and in your mercy, be their guardian and friend, their comfort and hope.

Watch over those who care for others: pastors and counselors; physicians and nurses; social workers and caring friends; all who feed the hungry, comfort the hurting, and stand beside the dying.
Strengthen them in their work, O Lord, and do not let them become weary in doing good.

Hear us as we pray in silence.

Help us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Keep us faithful even to the point of death, that we may receive the crown of life, through Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

The Sacrament

Preface

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lived among us as a human being and revealed his glory as your only Son, full of grace and truth. Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name.
Amen.

Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
Amen.

We celebrate the Lord's Supper today. In his Word, God makes it clear that Holy Communion is to be shared by people who proclaim a common faith (1 Corinthians 11:26; 1 Corinthians 10:16-17). Without judging anyone's hearts, we invite those who share in our confession by their membership in our congregation or another congregation of the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS) or the Evangelical Lutheran Synod (ELS) and who are properly prepared (1 Corinthians 11:27-29) to receive the Sacrament. See page 295 in the front of Christian Worship for a guide for preparation. Guests, please speak with one of the pastors about instruction in our Christian faith and this Sacrament so you will be ready to partake of this wonderful meal in full unity with us after that instruction. Thank you for respecting the way we celebrate the Lord's Supper.

Distribution – Communion distribution procedures will be announced by the Pastor. Please follow the direction of the ushers. Cups of non-alcoholic wine (light in color) are in the center of each tray.

Bound for the Promised Land Lakeside A Cappella

Personal Prayer after communion: Thank you, Lord Jesus Christ, for nourishing me in this sacrament with your body and blood. You have given me forgiveness, life, and salvation. Let me always remain in you as a branch remains in the vine. Send me out in the power of your Spirit to live and work to your praise and glory.

Thanksgiving

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy endures forever.

Whenever we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Prayer

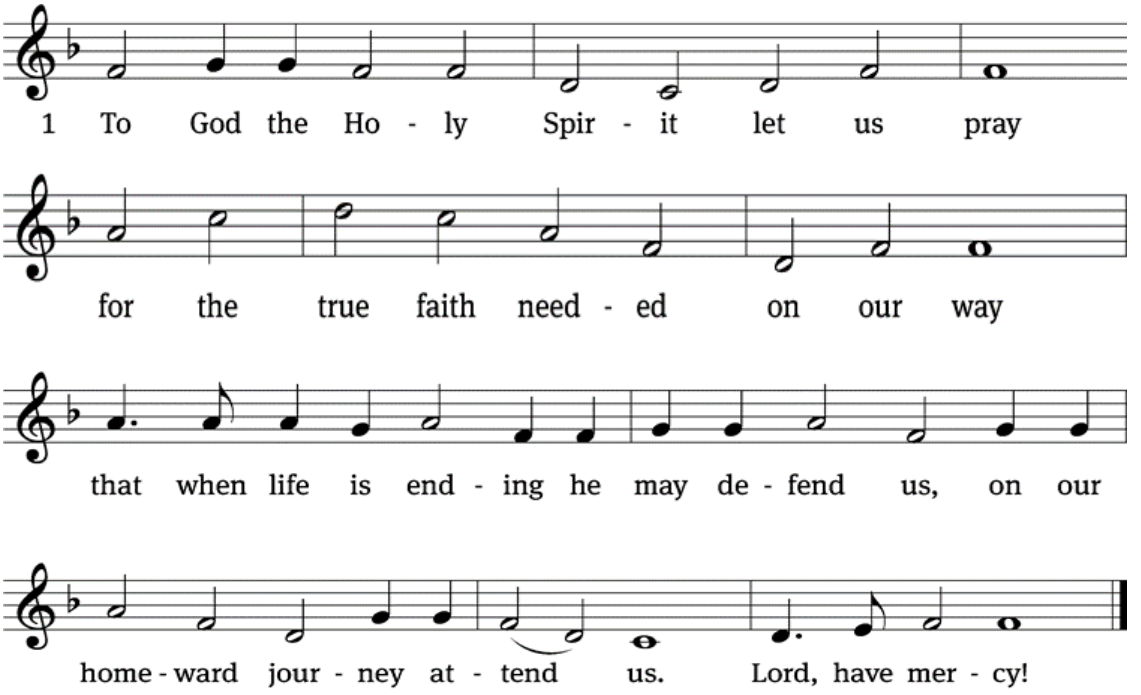

We give thanks, almighty God, that you have refreshed us with this saving gift. We pray that through it you will strengthen our faith in you and increase our love for one another. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

Blessing

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look on you with favor and give you peace. Amen.
